Signatures will be forged

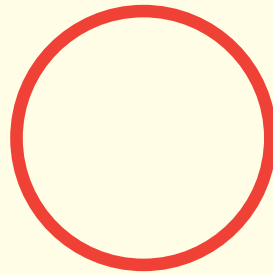

fig.1

Hello

We are currently planning a programme of activity for our 10th[!] anniversary throughout 2010. Signatures will be forged will be one of the first.

As fellow practitioners who have existed with, influenced and inspired us, we hope you would like to take part.

We invite you to forge the dust signature [fig.1]. Throughout 2010 we will be posting the returned forgeries online accompanied by the credit 'Forged by [your name here]', with a link back to your respective online presence.

Other outcomes will be defined as the year progresses. This is an open invitation, all are welcome, please feel free to distribute.
